A Boat on the Sea

Ethel Turner

A Boat on the sea, my boat,
Keener and firmer!
Sweet skies, smile as you look
On that fairy sail.

Waves, great waves, many years
You have worked your well.
Just while she passes through,
Kind waves be still.

Winds - and I may not ask
That you never blow,
But spare her the moaning note
That the old boats know.
